

MODERNage

At the edge of exceptional and eternal, you'll find this instinctive collection pushing the limits and stretching the boundaries of design. Mirroring the movement of minimalism in all facets of contemporary living, it offers furnishings that convey an experience. Bold, linear planes and straightforward forms are elevated with geometric elements. Simpler silhouettes are handsomely tailored to create furnishings with exceptional lines. Wood, stone and metal give this collection an organic simplicity and are highlighted with shadowy finishes and touches of metallic Bronze. Beyond stunning, these thoughtfully crafted designs represent the epitome of modern living.

EUROPEAN modern

Everyone wants the room that just works. One that feels warm and sophisticated, without trying too hard. Our new vision of modern achieves this by merging striking silhouettes with exquisite materials and layering finishes, textiles and textures in unexpected new ways. It's a timeless sofa reinvented with a pairing of sumptuous fabrics so plush they compel you to reach out. Or refreshingly simple table designs reimagined in rich textures and tones too intriguing to ignore. With an attitude that's both relaxed and refined, today's modern edge is tomorrow's classic.

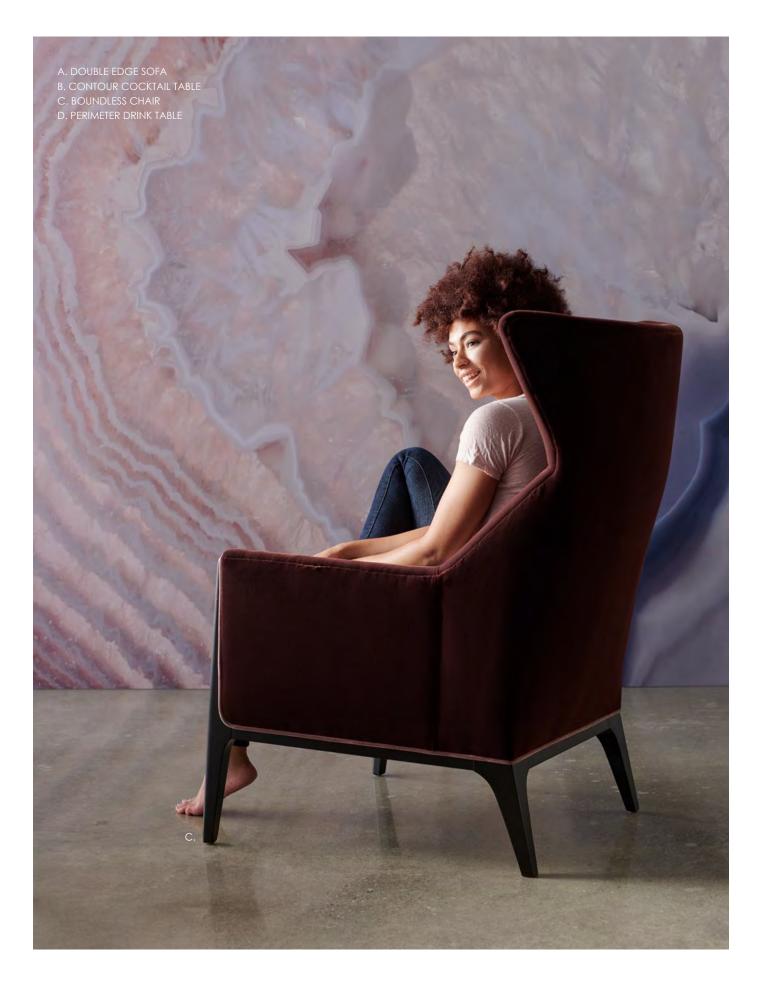

Perfectly proportioned, the Perimeter Drink Table adds a touch of luxe to a space while serving the practical purpose of hosting a glass of your favorite libation.

MODERN STYLE evolves WITH YOU over a LIFETIME

REFRESHINGLY simple forms with functionality ELEVATE A SPACE

MODERN geometrics

It's the convergence of round shapes and linear forms that sets the modern approach apart. The way curved arms make a squared sofa more inviting or how crisp, silhouettes are enlivened with dynamic materials and scale and proportion is mixed with intention. Carefully composed combinations bring positive and negative space into harmony while contrasts of simple and luxe, plush and refined stretch the boundaries of great design. These geometric theorems create elegant architecture in a room, even where there is none.

A study in geometry, this remarkable accent table has an undeniable edge. Its linear silhouette is crafted of a plated-metal frame wearing a warm Lucent Bronze finish that glistens in the light.

SOMETIMES ALL IT TAKES TO UP YOUR GAME IS AN INSPIRING NEW ENVIRONMENT.

MODERN dining

Imagine a dining table so exquisite you don't want to cover a single inch of it. That's the appeal of modern design—letting furniture speak for itself. When simple forms are married to just the right materials, it brings out the best in both. Today's modern dining furnishings set the mood and create their own ambiance, which leaves you free to enjoy more time with your guests.

TODAY'S MODERN WORK SCHEDULES REQUIRE MODERN WORK ENVIRONMENTS.

MODERN curves

When form follows fashion, modern can take the shape of any inspiration. Sensuous curves and softly rounded profiles create an airy countenance while maintaining the integrity of modern's minimalist roots. Straightforward shapes and refined tailoring feel feminine and inviting when paired with plush fabrics and softly gleaming finishes. The result lets you indulge your desire for clean lines and comfortable spaces.

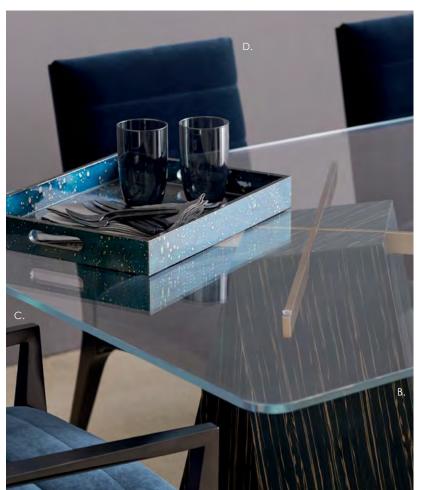

The ultimate example of thinking outside the box, this extraordinary credenza has no match. Offering a truly one-of-a-kind silhouette, it features innovative angled door shapes, staggered door lengths, and a cantilevered end door.

SIMPLICITY is the ESSENCE OF elegance

REFINED forms in EXCEPTIONAL finishes create ROOM TO dream

THOUGHTFUL proportions & handsome DETAILING always adds up to MORETHAN expected.

From the focal point of a room to special accent pieces, today's modern furnishings layer together seamlessly to create a backdrop for beautiful living. The art of display comes easily with multifunctional pieces in statement finishes. Understated forms interpreted with on-trend finishes and luxe materials combine to create a whole new level of style. Together, this medley of refreshingly simplistic silhouettes and refined tailoring creates exceptional spaces with relaxed, modern attitude.

An open framework of architectural-inspired metal supports gives this piece its modern character while a warm Lucent Bronze finish ensures it will complement any decor plan.
